

Durham Black Educators' Network & District 13 Durham OSSTF Presents

What role can teachers play in advancing equity and inclusions, and addressing anti-Black racism in schools and the system at large? This session provides a brief historical understanding of the foundation of public education in Canada and it's contemporary manifestations. Participants will leave with strategies to foster more inclusive workplaces and to inspire system-wide change!

ALL DDSB STAFF WELCOME!

Please Register Here:

<https://forms.gle/ASk8PchqjogAGCqx5>

You will receive your ZOOM invitation
a day prior to the event!

Registration Closes Mar 23 @3:00pm

Vidal A. Chavannes

Ed.D, M.A.Ed., B.A., B.Ed

Thursday March 25 @5:00pm