POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

POLICY 1 - ANTI HARASSMENT POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Anti Harassment Policy

All Members have the right to a union environment free from harassment and discrimination.

Harassment and discrimination have a destructive effect on the workplace environment, individual well-being, and union solidarity. Such actions are not only destructive, they can be illegal.

Harassment and discrimination can take many forms and may be verbal, physical or psychological. They can involve a wide range of actions including comments, gestures or looks, pictures, messages, touching, or more aggressive actions. These acts may be indirect or overt; they may be isolated or repeated. However, acts of harassment and discrimination are always degrading, unwelcome and coercive. They are always unacceptable.

As Members of OSSTF/FEESO, our goal must be to protect human rights, to promote mutual respect and trust, and to foster inclusion. Therefore, the Unit cannot condone or tolerate intimidating, demeaning, hostile or aggressive behaviour against another member.

A Member who feels targeted by harassment or discrimination must be able to speak up and know their concerns will be responded to immediately in accordance with the Bylaws and Policies and Procedures of OSSTF/FEESO and the Unit.

A Member will, upon the communication of a complaint to the designated AHO, receive a prompt response in accordance with the Unit's Resolution and Complaint Procedure.

Resolution and Complaint Procedure

A member who believes they have been the target of harassment or discrimination at a District 13 OTBU sponsored meeting or event is encouraged to take immediate action to ensure this behaviour is stopped.

As a first step, the member should make it clear to the perpetrator that they find the behaviour offensive and ask that it be stopped. This can be done personally, either in writing or verbally, or with the assistance of a third party.

If the behaviour recurs or persists, or if the member does not feel safe in approaching the perpetrator directly, they should speak with the designated AHO and ask them to act. If no AHO has been designated, the member should speak with the Chairperson or event Facilitator to ask that one be appointed.

The designated AHO will investigate the complaint promptly, including separately interviewing the parties involved and any witnesses, with a view to resolving the problem informally. During this process, the designated AHO, with the approval of the Chairperson or event Facilitator, may remove the respondent temporarily from the meeting if circumstances warrant.

Resolution and Complaint Procedure Cont'd

The investigation shall be handled confidentially. However, all complaints will be reported by the AHO to the President.

If the complaint cannot be resolved informally, the complainant will be asked to put the complaint and all relevant information in writing. If the complainant chooses to provide such a written complaint, it will be submitted to the President for action. It shall be the joint responsibility of the President and one other Member of the Executive not connected to the complaint to conduct an investigation, determine if the behaviour falls under the definition of harassment, and decide on appropriate remedial action.

Should the complaint involve the President, then the First Vice-President or their designate shall undertake the duties of the President as outlined above.

The parties involved will receive a written report stating the findings and any action taken.

Resolutions may include but are not limited to apologies, mediation, warnings, temporarily limiting access, or removal/exclusion from the meeting or event. If a decision is made to remove or exclude that member, and where this member is representing a bargaining unit, district, or the Provincial body, a confidential letter outlining the reasons for this decision will be sent to the president of the appropriate body.

Decisions may be reviewed by Members of the Executive not involved with the complaint or its investigation on the request of a Member.

A confidential file of all records and reports related to the investigation of written complaints shall be kept for a period of five years.

None of the above restricts a member's right to file a complaint with the Ontario Human Rights Commission or make a complaint to police.

Appeals Procedure

Members of the Unit affected by a decision resulting from a complaint under the Bargaining Unit's Anti Harassment Policy may appeal this decision by submitting a written request for an Appeal Hearing to the President in a timely fashion.

Upon receiving the request, the President shall strike an Anti Harassment Appeals Committee to consider the appeal.
