SECTION 2 Each District Standing Committee shall have a mandate approved by District Executive, and reviewed annually by the members of the Committee.

- a) Any Member of The District is eligible for any elected position except:
 - Additional Bargaining Unit Provincial Councillor which is restricted to members of that Bargaining Unit.
- b) Executive Officers may only hold the following elected positions and only in a non-voting capacity at District Executive and District Council:
 - Treasurer or Secretary/Treasurer
 - Additional Bargaining Unit Provincial Councillor
 - AMPA Delegate
 - i. In the event where an Executive Officer runs and is elected for a position that is not included in the list above, the Executive Officer will vacate their Executive Officer position upon taking office.
 - ii. In the event where a member holding an elected position not listed in (2b) earns an Executive Officer position, the member will vacate the elected position upon the start of the hired term.
- c) A candidate may hold more than one elected position.

SECTION 3 Each Branch of the Bargaining Units or, where a Bargaining Unit does not contain Branches, the Bargaining Unit Executive, will elect or appoint the members of these committees.

SECTION 4 a) The District Executive shall arrange for the election or appointment of the Chairpersons of Standing Committees.
b) These positions are for one year terms.

SECTION 5 The Chairpersons of the District Standing Committees shall be considered voting members of the District Executive at all District Executive Meetings. Where the position of chairperson is shared by two or more people, any or all may attend District Executive Meetings, but only one representative of a committee may vote.

SECTION 6 The District Executive may appoint an Executive Officer to each Standing Committee as a District Liaison. This Executive Officer shall then be a voting member of the Committee to which he or she is appointed.

BYLAW III – NOMINATION, CAMPAIGN AND ELECTION PROCEDURES

SECTION 1 At the District Annual Meeting, elections shall be held for the following positions of the District Executive: District President, District Vice-Presidents (4), District Secretary, District Treasurer, and Delegates to the Provincial Assembly, the number of the last being determined by the Constitution and Bylaws of Provincial OSSTF.

SECTION 2 a) Any Member of The District is eligible for any elected position except:

- Additional Bargaining Unit Provincial Councillor which is restricted to members of that Bargaining Unit.

b) Executive Officers may only hold the following elected positions and only in a non-voting capacity at District Executive and District Council:

- Treasurer or Secretary/Treasurer
- Additional Bargaining Unit Provincial Councillor
- AMPA Delegate

i. In the event where an Executive Officer runs and is elected for a position that is not included in the list above, the Executive Officer will vacate their Executive Officer position upon taking office.

ii. In the event where a member holding an elected position not listed in (2b) earns an Executive Officer position, the member will vacate the elected position upon the start of the hired term.

c) A candidate may hold more than one elected position.

SECTION 3 If a Bargaining Unit has enough FTE to generate Additional Bargaining Unit Provincial Councillor(s) then their election may occur at the District Annual Meeting with the procedures determined by that Bargaining Unit and elected by only members of that Bargaining Unit.

SECTION 4 Nomination

- a) A nominating committee, appointed by the District Executive, shall
- b) prepare a list of nominees for all open elected offices for presentation to the District Annual Meeting.
- c) This committee will accept, with the consent of the nominee, any
- d) nominations for office signed by at least two Members of The District, up to four weeks prior to the District Annual Meeting.

- e) After this deadline, nominations will BE deemed closed for all positions unless there is no nominee for a given position, in which case that position will remain open, with subsequent nominations being accepted.
- f) The committee will forward to the Branch Presidents or Bargaining Unit Presidents the list of nominees no later than three weeks prior to the District Annual Meeting.
- g) It is the duty of each Branch President or Bargaining Unit President to ensure that the Membership of his or her Branch is aware of these nominations.
- h) Nominations for any position from the floor of the District Annual Meeting, with the consent of the nominee and signed by at least two Members of the District, shall only be accepted for open positions.

SECTION 5 Campaign Rules

- a) Candidates for elected positions may only distribute copies of a single information sheet or pamphlet to each school not earlier than 3 weeks prior to the District Annual Meeting. Campaigning will not be allowed through electronic communication with the exception of InPrint13 and/or the District 13 website.
- b) Each candidate may place only information sheets or pamphlets on the tables at the District Annual Meeting. Each information sheet or pamphlet may not exceed 8.5" x 11" and may include photographs and information about the candidate.
- c) Candidates may publish an advertisement in the April issue of the District newsletter in accordance with newsletter rules and deadlines. Ad size maximums are a full page for President, half page for Vice-President and quarter page for all other elected positions.
- d) If an all-candidates meeting is held, all candidates must be invited to attend. Such a meeting must be held at a time that is outside of the regular school day. Rules for the all-candidates meeting will be provided by the Nomination Committee to the candidates at least one week in advance of the meeting and must include the opportunity for opening and closing statements from all candidates as well as a question and answer session where each candidate has the opportunity to respond.
- e) Attendance at all-candidates meetings is restricted only to members of the District.
- f) Candidates may only visit schools at times that are outside of the regular school day.

SECTION 6 Election

- a) The election for District President will be held near the beginning of the meeting. When three or more candidates are running for the office of District President, or any other single office, the voter will rank the candidates in order of preference, 1,2,3, etc. and the ballots will be counted as in the Australian Preferential Ballot, the candidate first gaining a majority of the votes cast being elected. As soon as the counting of the ballots for President is complete, the result will be announced. The defeated candidates for President can then agree or decline to have their names added to the list of nominees for District Vice-President.
- b) The election for four District Vice-Presidents will then be held. The voter will mark one, two, three or four candidates with no preference indicated. The candidate with the greatest number of votes shall be the District First Vice-President; the candidate with the second greatest number of votes shall be the District Second Vice-President, the candidate with the third greatest number of votes will be the District Third Vice-President and the candidate with the fourth greatest number of votes will be the District Fourth Vice-President. An election must be held to determine the order of office.

- c) In the event of a tie when voting for the office of Vice-President, where the results of breaking the tie will determine if an individual will be part of the District Executive or will impact the ranking order of the Vice-Presidents, a run-off vote of the tied candidates shall be taken by the membership at the District Annual Meeting.
- d) In the event of a tie after the run-off vote, the chairperson shall cast a ballot to break the tie.
- e) A single ballot for the remaining elected District Executive Positions will be held. Single offices will be determined as for the District President. Delegates to the Provincial Assembly will be determined in a similar way to the District Vice-Presidents, except that no ranking of delegates will result. The successful candidate(s) for Additional Bargaining Unit Provincial Councillor(s) (along with the Bargaining Unit Presidents) will be automatically named as delegates to the Provincial Assembly and the number elected may vary from year to year.
- f) At the District Annual Meeting, candidates for the office of District President shall be allowed five (5) minutes to speak; candidates for the office of District Vice-President shall be allowed three (3) minutes to speak; candidate(s) for the positions of District Treasurer, Additional Bargaining Unit Provincial Councillor(s) and District Secretary shall be allowed two (2) minutes to speak; candidates for the position of Delegate to the Provincial Assembly shall be allowed one (1) minute to speak.
- g) All elections shall be conducted by secret ballot.
- h) Each candidate may name a scrutineer to observe the counting of the ballots.

SECTION 7 All terms of office shall be for one year from July 1 following the election.

SECTION 8 The District President-elect shall be made a member (supernumerary) of the District Executive immediately following his or her election.

DISTRICT 13 OSSTF POLICY

1. It is the policy of District 13 OSSTF that the separate identity of District 13 OSSTF should be maintained when there is liaison with other O.T.F. affiliates.
2. It is the policy of District 13 OSSTF that any further development of standardized testing in Durham Secondary Schools be done only after consultation with and the approval of the teachers of District 13 OSSTF.
3. It is the policy of District 13 OSSTF that department headships should not be term appointments.
4. It is the policy of District 13 OSSTF that the membership of District 13 support initiatives to retain existing staffing levels by encouraging, whenever possible, students in Durham Secondary Schools to maintain full time equivalency status as defined by the Ministry of Education.
5. It is the policy of District 13 OSSTF that all secondary schools should institute a parental involvement model that uses a graduated return of students with parents by grade level in the first week of school.
6. It is the policy of District 13 OSSTF that the addition of portable classrooms to schools be opposed. If portables are used temporarily, a covered walkway should be installed to attach them to the main building and to each other.
7. It is the policy of District 13 to support a scent-reduced environment both in the workplace and at all OSSTF meetings and functions.
8. It is the policy of District 13 OSSTF that all members should assist and co-operate with any member who is being accommodated in a school or worksite due to disability.
